

Consent Form – Credit Report

First: By signing this consent I hereby agree to the following:

1. Qatar Development Bank will inquire about my credit history including returned checks. The inquiry may be made at any stage of my relationship with the Bank which could range from me requesting ( but not yet granted) any service from QDB, whether financial or non- financial, to me being the client of QDB by way of established, approved relationship.
2. Qatar Development Bank will review all loans and facilities granted to me, including the regularity of payment, and that QDB employees need to review and discuss this information to perform their work in relation to the credit history, and that such credit history may affect Qatar Development Bank's decision to grant the required facilities, either positively or negatively, and that the credit report request will appear in the credit history and that may affect the decision of any other authority with access to my credit information .
3. I acknowledge that Qatar Development Bank is required to provide my credit information to Qatar Credit Information Center and vice versa, and that this includes providing information about returned checks for any reason.
4. Qatar Development Bank may request a credit history report more than once as and when needed according to work requirements.
5. QDB has the right to request my credit report at any time should any facility be granted and as long as the facility is not fully repaid.
6. Qatar Development Bank and its employees are exempted from any liability related to the inquiry of my credit history.
7. I undertake to inform Qatar Development Bank of any significant financial obligation on the credit history not mentioned in the Qatar Credit Center Report.

Second: I also acknowledge and agree to the following:

1. This consent does not obligate Qatar Development Bank to acquire or study the credit report, as it is subject to the bank's discretion to study the report, and only after the bank is satisfied with the feasibility or purpose of the requested facilities, or the quality of the sources of repayment provided or the quality and type of guarantees provided, and sufficiency of the experience or any another matter as the may deem appropriate.
2. I understand that all of the above applies to me, whether an individual, institution or company, and that my signature below represents me personally, or the entity I legally own, represent or authorized on their behalf, (whether the request for the credit history report is for a real person or legal entity).
